

2026 Annual Meeting: Positive Results & Stronger Than Ever

Cinfed hosted its 92nd annual meeting June 2 at the Oakley office.

Cinfed CEO Jay Sigler and Board Chair Jerry Meyer hosted the event, where the 2025 financial results and the 2026 Louis M. Brown Scholarship recipients were announced.

In 2025, Cinfed's assets grew by $91.4 million to $840 million, with a net income of $8.4 million — outstanding results that are the highest in our history. With a net worth ratio solidly above 11.4%, financial reserves are excellent and illustrate that Cinfed is in a very safe and sound financial position.

Congratulations to our 2026 Louis M. Brown Scholarship recipients and best of luck to all Cinfed graduates!

TOP WORKPLACE FOR 11TH STRAIGHT YEAR

Cinfed has been named one of the region's Top Workplaces for the 11th consecutive year. The award is based on an employee survey covering factors such as pay and benefits, leadership, and appreciation.

"We're excited to build on our reputation as a Top Workplace in the Tri-State area for 11 years and counting," Cinfed CEO Jay Sigler said. "Our employees keep raising the bar and remain committed to delivering legendary member service, and that's a huge point of pride for everyone here at Cinfed."

Cinfed was also named a winner in CityBeat's Best of Cincinnati and LINK NKY's Readers' Choice Awards voting — thank you for helping establish Cinfed as a top credit union in the area!
